Come on you Div 1 guys and take a little time to make sure your score sheets are filled out correctly. The number of times nobody is listed as having pegged out the team game is getting ridiculous luckily so far at least one of the two score sheets have indicated which team won so I've allocated a peg of 2 to a random player on that side so if anybody pegged out 170 on one of these games bad luck. Also the number of times the winning player is marked as the loser and vice versa is way too frequent.
